February Snowtubing

The February snowtubing took place at Mad River Mountain. We snowtubed around four hours there. It was a very enjoyable outing. Everyone who went had a very good time. The snowtubing event is always something to look forward to each year!

SPL's Review of Troop

There are many things I like about this troop. I like the camaraderie of everyone, of how friendly everyone is. I also like how we have a good outdoors program. We also have regular rank advancement. However, I would like to see us improve in our communication skills, which are not only useful in scouts, but in real life. I believe that we will be able to achieve this if we go the extra mile and commit to the cause.

Scout of the Month

Sorry, there's no scout of the month for February. So please enjoy this picture of a monkey.

You're Taking Scouting Too Seriously If (Part Two)...

-You have the urge to help little old ladies...whether they want it or not

-You carry your own toilet paper wherever you go

-You have to go to the restroom and you start looking for a buddy even when you're at school/work

-You tie your shoe and check the handbook to see if it meets a rank requirement

-You go on a family walk around the block and you insist on taking a map and a compass along
